promote faster growth on steep hillsides. Since late afternoon on Friday, Valley residents have been curious to know, "What is going on?"

Baez school, Diamond N on Oct. 27 Plancom agenda

The Planning Commission has scheduled the hearing for the use permit application for the Institute for the Study of Non-Violence, Inc. for 3:25 p.m. on Wednesday, October 27. The group is applying for a school permit on property located one and a half miles east of the Village on Carmel Valley Road. (see story on page 1)

In other business scheduled for the Plancom meeting the application for the rezoning for Diamond N subdivision off Miramonte Road will be considered at 9:55. In this new presentation the developers are asking that the KGB 4 zoning be changed to R1 B6 which will result in the permanent establishment of legal building sites which cannot be split after they are approved by the Board of Supervisors on the final map.

At 2:40 an application for a use permit to remove natural materials from the Morse Ranch will be heard. Request is for rock with which to build roads at the Rancho Fiesta retirement community in order to save hauling from more remote area.

Fred Horne of Chaparral Road will present his application for a panhandle lot at 1:40.

Another panhandle lot has been requested by Donald Miller for a lot adjacent to the Carmel Valley Inn in an R2 zoning area with no access to the county road. Access is required for a legal building site on which he wished to construct a duplex.

FIRST AID FOR CUTS

All of the cutbanks and fill areas in Rancho Tierra Grande subdivision received what looked like a coat of green paint last Friday. This was the result of a hydro-seeding process in which a cellulose material called "Turf fibre" containing grass seed, wildflower seed and fertilizer is sprayed on the banks under tremendous pressure. The Turf fibre holds the seed to the steep areas and it is hoped that with the advent of rain the growing process will be speeded up considerably.

According to Skip Marquard, they treated not only the county property which includes all banks adjacent to the county access roads, but any cutbanks on lots in the subdivision. The A.L. Neu Company out of Union City handled the procedure, and to their knowledge this is the first time the process has been used in Monterey County. It has been tried with good results in the Santa Cruz area.

Institute of Non violence asks for permanent CV home

The Institute for the Study of Non-Violence, Inc. has applied for a use permit for the site and buildings of the former "So Help Me Hannah" poison oak remedy laboratory on Carmel Valley Road. The present zoning of this property is light industrial (LMDP) which permits a variety of industrial and commercial uses. The property was also granted a multiple dwelling usage several years ago.

The use permit is required for "Quasi-public" usages such as schools, etc." The managerial and executive functions of the school may be carried on under existing zoning without a use permit.

The Institute is chartered as a non-profit education group and is headed by Ira Sandpirl, president. Mr. Sandpirl is a Stanford graduate, who has taught creative writing in the Menlo Park Schools in addition to lecturing extensively as an active pacifist. Sandpirl wrote the introduction to the Ghandi book on Africa. Most recently he was heard at the Unitarian Church in the Round speaking on the subject of "Non-Violence in the Violent World."

Vice president of the school is Joan Baez, Valley resident who is now on a concert tour in England. Her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Albert Baez have recently purchased a home in La Rancheria where they hope to

Letter to the Editor

Editor:

A very unfortunate incident occurred on the Carmel Valley Road! A German Shepard dog--someones beloved pet, was the victim of a hit and run driver. To hit an animal and leave the scene without even trying to render aid, is first of all morally wrong, and in addition according to Vehicle Code 20005 is a violation of the law.

Someone hit this dog and just kept going--to make matters worse many cars passed by this suffering animal lying in the middle of the road, (they had to drive around it to continue on their way) without bothering to render aid. It was a young college student on his way to school who stopped his truck, wrapped the suffering animal in a blanket, while others continued to drive by, and took it directly to a veterinarian.

The Monterey County S.P.C.A. pleads with you--in such a case to stop to render aid to a helpless animal--or at least take the animal off to the side of the road so it won't be struck again, and go to the nearest telephone and call any of the following areas, depending upon the area in which the accident occurs.

Children's Home Society holds open house at new location

The "Story of Adoption", a film designed to guide prospective adoptive parents, was presented as the feature of the Open House held Oct. 11th at the new offices of the Children's Home Society at 444 Pearl St. Monterey, where Mrs. Helen Robinson, case-worker supervisor welcomed board members, staff and their families. Honored guests were Mrs. Arthur Hickey, recently retired as State-wide volunteer director of all auxiliary chapters who is now living in Carmel, and the representative from the Fort Ord Chaplains office, Lt. Col. Oliver E. Porter.

Representing Board of Directors, S.P.C.A.

The film portrays the Agency's services for the infant who needs a permanent home, to the natural parents requiring help in planning for the future of their children, and to the couples seeking to build families of their own by adoption.

The guests at the Open House also viewed paintings by local artists Margaret Ziegler of Carmel Valley, and Judith Cohen of Carmel, formerly of Carmel Valley, that have been loaned to the Society for exhibit in the newly set up suite of offices.

The Society is partially maintained by bequests, memberships of individuals, families, and clubs, and donations and work of the auxiliaries. Carmel board members include Mrs. Cohen, Mrs. John Robotti, Miss Helen Heavey, and Maurice Mandell; Mrs. Mark Thomas of Carmel Valley is also a member of the board.

Rex White heads new slate of Kiwanis officers

Rex White was nominated president of Carmel Valley Kiwanis Club last week.

He is owner of Prince's Camp in the Cachagua and is currently serving as president of the Carmel Valley Chamber of Commerce.

He will succeed William Mallek, principal of Tularcitos School.

Other new officers nominated include Joe Ricupero vice president, and Don Quinto treasurer.

Nominees for directors, who also include officers, are Louis Gardner, Ralph Updike, Manfred Myers, Kevin Walsh, Rev. Jim Brock and Ken Van Hagen.

Tom Hefling was chairman of the Nominating committee.

Joe Ricupero introduced a visiting friend from New York, Peter Quadagno, chief of the architectural department of Westchester County.

San Clemente Rancho

Former homestead becomes family recreation site

"San Clemente Rancho" is a 2,005-acre recreation spread, up topside from Carmel Valley in the Santa Lucia mountains just to the south.

Its developer, Mike Dormody of a pioneer Carmel Valley family, envisions it as the first of a chain of similar vacation retreats elsewhere in the West.

In fact, he just came back from an exploration trip to Montana for another property to develop and use the same formula he has proven successful with his five-year-old development here.

Santa Clemente Rancho lies about nine miles off Carmel Valley Rd, in the rugged beautiful mountains and is reached over a three-mile entrance road that takes off from the county road through the Oppenheimer San Carlos Ranch. Dormody's development is bounded by the San Carlos Ranch, the Los Padres National Forest and San Clemente Dam on the West.

Forty nine attractive cabins, with several in multiple-family ownership, serve 58 families. While the majority are from the Monterey Peninsula and Salinas area, some are from San Francisco and area, several from Southern California and even one from as far away as Texas.

2 CREEKS

The cabins are scattered throughout a broad wooded canyon with redwoods, madrone and oak. Black Rock and San Clemente Creeks course for about six miles through the property, and a dam backs up a five-acre pond. Each spring Dormody has been planting it with about 5,000 14-inch rainbow trout, and there's a fish ladder which is a series of stepped concrete boxes up the dam to permit steelhead to find their way back to spawn. Besides fishing, some of the families sail a little El Toro and catamaran boats on the pond; boats larger than 10-feet long with motors are prohibited.

Dormody is at work building a second pond higher up than the trout lake, and plans to stock the new one with bass.

The area abounds with deer, quail, dove and wild boar. "I first thought of San Clemente Rancho as a sportsman center, but it's turned into a family recreation development, with hunting secondary to just vacationing," he said.

2 SWIMMING POOLS

Members also have use of two swimming pools, one 55-foot pool for adults and a new L-shaped one, 75X60 feet for children.

These are in a grassy center beside a covered BBQ area with two huge raised grills, a large open fire pit and 11 picnic tables. There are dressing rooms, and two tennis courts.

A gate house where the entrance road takes off from the county road insures privacy. This is the same sort of arrangement for the older White Rock sportsmen development, which is on down the county road, several miles further through the San Carlos ranch. In fact, San Clemente Rancho is somewhat similar to but more luxurious than the 100-cabin White Rock area, which was developed back in the 1920's.

Ownership in the land is held by Dormody who sells memberships which give the right to build a cabin and use the facilities. There's a modest annual maintenance fee for road and pool upkeep, trout stocking and water. Dormody has installed five and a half miles of water pipe and constructed 15 miles of roads, and riding and hiking trails.

OUTLOOK READERS comment frequently on the excellent quality of the printing of Carmel Valley's community newspaper. Why not take further advantage of that quality? The creative talents of our staff are at your disposal.

TWO SWIMMING POOLS FEATURE the grassy center of the private recreation development, San Clemente Rancho, off the county road which crosses the Oppenheimer ranch in the near-by Santa Lucia Mountains. Two tennis courts and a BBQ and picnic area are also included.

BUILDING AIRSTRIP

He is also leveling off a mountain top for an airstrip. About a third of the members fly airplanes, he said. He himself plans to learn to fly soon.

Future projects he has in mind include a roller skating rink which might be flooded in the winter for ice skating (altitude varies from 900 to 3000 feet), a meeting and recreational building, new stables and skeet and trap shooting areas.

Dormody emphasized his interest in conservation, which is expressed in the development's charter. It declares that the purpose is a nature refuge dedicated "to preservation of natural beauties, bounties and resources, and conservation of flora and fauna."

For years he was in the construction and earth-moving business in Carmel Valley, where he lives with his family. He purchased the mountain range for the San Clemente Rancho in 1960 from Mr. and Mrs. Charles McFadden, who had homesteaded it in the early 1920's. The McFaddens now live in Pacific Grove.

CVPOA aids clean air fund

The Board of Directors of the Carmel Valley Property Owners Association voted to donate $100 to the Referendum Fund against Humble Oil Company at last Thursday's Board meeting. CVPOA president St. E.P. Tyner said that the matter of a possible increased donation will be taken up at the general membership meeting in tentatively set for December 9.

Tyner told the Outlook, "We feel that the threat (of air pollution) to Carmel Valley is a very real threat and comes well within the purpose of the organization."

In other business the board received the report of their committee which has been working since last May on KGBY zoning. The planners have withheld action on a Lower Valley Advisory Board letter until receipt of the CVPOA report.

(Editor's note: KGB-4 applies to the one acre minimum areas, and is a rural-professional designation. With this zoning certain professional uses may be made of the residential land by obtaining a use permit. These include resort hotels and clubs, hospitals, rest homes, sanatoriums, and clinics, executive offices of commercial and industrial firms where managerial duties are carried out, and research laboratories, with no manufacturing.)

Tyner stated they felt that "G zoning" serves no purpose at all anymore except to invite people to make application for use permits to put things in places where they don't belong. It doesn't comply with the master plan, he said, and the CVPOA feels it should be abolished.

The Board also accepted a preliminary report of the committee who has been analyzing Monterey County Council for Conservation and Planning. Representatives are expected to be present at the October 28 Valley Advisory Meeting (Hudson Huddle) at Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club when the MCCC plan is to be explained and discussed.

The CVPOA has taken the stand that the Area Master Plan should be adopted without any further consideration of the MCCC proposal presented by the larger property owners.

'An Evening With Eleanor Wallace' will be presented at Fort Ord

A concert, "An Evening with Eleanor Wallace," will be held on Saturday, October 30, at 8:30 p.m. at Fort Ord Service Club One. Eleanor, who is a resident of Carmel, has appeared in a number of shows at Fort Ord, but this will be her first solo concert.

The concert features all of her own compositions, written for a 11-string baroque lute, which she will play. Her compositions are based on everyday occurrences which happen to everyone.

Eleanor's nine year old son, Mike, will join her on two numbers.

Admission is free and anyone who is interested is invited to attend.

Carmel's population increases

Three new additions to the population of Carmel occurred last week at Community Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Hubson of Hatton Road became the proud parents of their first child, Robert Anthony on October 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tonkin of Los Altos Drive added a girl, Emily Augusta to their family on October 10.

Another female addition arrived on October 11 to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Holman of Junipero and Rio Road. The Holmans named their new daughter, Dina Lori.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Swim held a reception last weekend at their Druid Hills Ranch to give Peninsula residents an opportunity to meet Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest. Mrs. Priest who served as President Eisenhower's treasurer during the 1950's was on a campaign tour for the office of state treasurer.

A former Valleyite made a brief visit here last week with relatives and friends when Mrs. Howard Lockwood arrived from Juneau, Alaska. The Lockwoods who are associated with land development recently welcomed the Walter Reams family who are the latest Valley family to leave California for the far north. Mrs. Lockwood had photos of their fantastic catch of king crab and tales of top notch entertainment such as the recent tour of the Christy Minstrels which they enjoyed in Juneau...sans crowds.

Doug Bradburn of Miramonte Road was among those judging.

"Everytime you buy a ticket you register your approval of a film. Be selective." These are frequently used favorite comments of Mrs. Ruth B. Hedges, motion picture editor, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, who spoke last Tuesday at the meeting of the 20th district meeting of the organization. Mrs. Ed Coffin, Monterey Peninsula Council president and district program director was hostess for the luncheon meeting held at the Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club.

Congratulations to the Valley parents of two baby boys born in September. On September 24th Master Lindsey James Friday arrived at Community Hospital. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Friday of Carmel Valley Road. The Friday daughters, Kimberly Ann 3, and Jymy Lynn 1 1/2 are currently guests of their maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard M. Lindsey of La Canada. Paternal grandparents of the children are Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Friday of Pebble Beach.

Lt. and Mrs. James Charles Vohr of Ford Road will call their son, "Alex" but the birth certificate dated September 28th reads James Alexander Vohr. Alex has two sets of grandparents in New England who are anxious for a glimpse of him as soon as his father completes his course at the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey.

An "old oak leaf cluster" to the Carmel Valley Lionettes who will sponsor the fifth and sixth grade Camp Fire Girls group. Organized at the beginning of the school year the girls meet each Wednesday at the Community Center under the leadership of Mrs. Arthur Harber.

A water melon eating contest was the highlight of the birthday celebration of Robin White last weekend at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Keith White. It was a perfect Fall day for the party held outdoors at the Hastings reservation. Robin who was ten years old had chosen a pink, blue, and gold theme for her table decorations. Party guests included Debbie Staples, Mollie O'Neal, Regina Howland, Enid Rauber, Leslie Condren, Kim Baker, Gail Nason, Ellie Mast, Liz Korver, Terry Hendrix, Heather Golden, Helena Bresk, and Heidi Hattan.

This is the tale of a horse, a Welsh Pony to be exact, who was owned until recently by June Martin Wood. When the paths of "Hogan" the horse and Nancy Hoisington crossed it was love at first sight for both parties. Nancy and Hogan enjoyed many expeditions together including the memorable day that Nancy's mother came home in time to hear her daughter say, "And this is my room," as she gave Hogan a tour of their house!

Recently on her birthday, Nancy was presented with an enormous box which was beautifully gift wrapped and empty! When her family explained that the gift was too large to bring inside, Nancy dashed to the patio and found Hogan, bedecked with ribbons and balloons. Hogan, who has been renamed, "Dusty," has been accepted by their other horse, "Shasta," and thus the tale of a horse with a happy ending!

Alliance Francaise to honor Swiss Consul General

A Sunday Brunch will be held at Carmel Valley Inn on October 31 in honor of the Consul General of Switzerland, Mr. Jean Studer of San Francisco, and two French speaking artists from Geneva, Mr. and Mrs. Jean-Bard. The day is planned by the members of the Monterey Peninsula Alliance Francaise.

After the 12:30 brunch, the group will meet at the Tantomount Theatre at 2:30 for a recital of French prose and poetry and fragments of French classical theatre presented by the Jean-Bards.

Mrs. W.G.B. Hatch of Rancho Road will be co-hostess Mrs. Tanya Treutle of Monterey during the coffee interlude. Students from the Institute of Foreign Studies will assist in seating members and their guests. Anyone interested in hearing French spoken is welcome to attend. Information may be obtained by calling Mrs. David Pitfield (624-3195) or Mrs. Hatch (659-4746).

mount Theatre, will be available for individual or group sessions.

John Ralph Geddis will instruct in practice and theory of acting, basic beginning and advanced. His vast theatre training has included work with Ellen Van Volkenburg in Maurice Brown's School of Theatre, the American Laboratory of Theatre with Boleslavsky and Ouspenskaya and training with Martha Graham and Fokine as dancer.

Filling the need for voice training, Francoise Martin will give instruction in this portion of theatre craft. His background includes study with Irving Pichel, Harry Brainerd of Metropolitan Opera and Mrs. Robert Edmond Jones. He will work with all phases of the spoken word including voice placement, voice development, production, projection and diction for the actor, public speaker or just those who like to read aloud.

Sessions will be held either at the Angene Feves Studio or at the Tantomount Theatre. For schedules, fees and further information phone 659-2737.

White Oaks will open 'Puss in Boots' Oct. 24

Dilemmas arising from a cat's desire for a pair of red boots make up the action of "Puss In Boots," White Oaks Theatre's offering for children during Sunday matinee performances at 2:30, October 24 through December 12. The Fantasy Players are also booking touring engagements of shows for schools and children's groups throughout central California.

Dramatics instructor Shirley Eoff is directing company members of the White Oaks Theatre Training Center who are cast in a variety of roles ranging from the eager-to-please Puss himself (Karin Gjording) to the evil Enchanter (Don Richard).

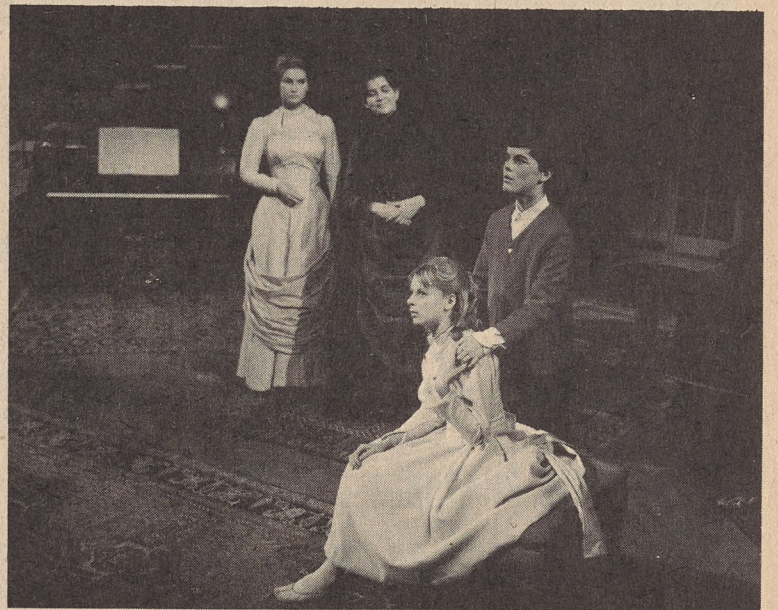

Rounding out the cast are Puss' master Christophe (George Shea), the lovely Princess Angelique (Chris Flynn), her absent-minded father the King (Ron Stark), and the madcap Lise (Linda Boblitt).

All company members are presently involved in acting, voice, dance, and dramatic theory classes at the theatre in Carmel Valley where their training is applied to children's works as well as Friday and Saturday night productions.

The Fantasy Players have slated for Spring, "The Wonderment of Gleep," an original children's play by White Oaks artistic director Gale Peterson.

Sinister production at White Oaks

STRANGE CHILDREN are portrayed by Barbara Makinster and George Grey seated in the foreground of this scene from William Archibald's "The Innocents," the first Winter Season production now playing at Carmel Valley's White Oaks Theatre. Tracy Carr is the aging housekeeper, Mrs. Grose, and Mary Pattie portrays Miss Giddens, the children's governess, during Friday and Saturday performances at 8:30 p.m. through November 6 --- and most definitely during the Halloween weekend.

Residents of Carmel Valley have two opportunities each year to contribute to their blood program. Once in May and again in October the Red Cross Bloodmobile makes its stop at the Valley Firehouse. In May, 76 persons offered to donate blood and, of these, 66 were successful donors. The Chapter considered this a very satisfactory turnout, but not so Mrs. Thomas McKiernon who is in charge of recruiting volunteers in Carmel Valley. She has worked toward a goal of 100 for the past four years.

Letters are in the mail to all past-donors, and Mrs. McKiernon's telephone committee will be calling a long list of people in hopes of finding new volunteers. Mrs. McKiernon states that 100 is a realistic goal but it can only be accomplished by new donors to augment the present regular numbers.

A Red Cross Blood donor may never know the person to whom the blood is given, but he can be sure that the Red Cross makes it available to someone who needs it through the county medical society or the local hospitals, according to Edgar Bissantz, acting blood program chairman.

The Red Cross Blood is given to those who need it the most for leukemia, hemophilia, anemia, ulcers, cancer and active tuberculosis. Red Cross blood is also available to the aged and others who are not able to pay for or replace their blood needs.

By supporting the Four County Blood Center, of which Monterey county is a part, a donor makes possible the instant availability of free blood for anyone in the four county area as well as his own family.

In Monterey County nearly all the blood used by doctors is supplied by the Red Cross and in the nation over one half of the amount is similarly supplied, according to Mr. Bissantz.

Remember that the bloodmobile will be at the Valley Firehouse on Thursday, October 28, from 3 to 6:30 p.m.

Scenic Switzerland viewed in Explorama film

"INCOMPARABLE SWITZERLAND," the final presentation on the Explorama-Carmel program, Friday, October 29, shows the charm of the country through its people as well as its scenic glories.

The final Explorama-Carmel program on this year will be presented at 8:00 p.m., Friday, October 29th at Sunset Auditorium in Carmel.

"INCOMPARABLE SWITZERLAND," a prize winning film will be narrated in person by explorer Earl Brink. The feature-length film has stereophonic musical backgrounds and recently won first prize at the Geneva Travel Festival. Highlights include: the Matterhorn, Devil's Bridge, the Castle of Chillon, Zurich, Lake Lucerne, Geneva, the village of Iserables, where women carry babies on 'head cradles', skiing in the Alps, and unexcelled scenery.

This is Mr. Brinks tenth completed different film dealing with Switzerland. He has traveled there every year since 1948.

Tickets at $1.50 will be available at the door or in advance from Central Box Office, 6th & Dolores in Carmel or Abinante Music Store in Monterey. The program is presented as a community service by the Explorers Club of San Francisco with proceeds to be used for their science scholarship fund.

Senator Murphy guest of honor at GOP dinner

U.S. Senator George Murphy will be the guest of honor and speaker at the $50 a plate Republican fund raising dinner to be held Thursday, October 28 at the Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club.

Murphy, who was elected to the Senate last November after defeating former presidential press secretary, Pierre Salinger, has been speaking at a number of Republican functions in the state.

The dinner is sponsored by the Monterey County Republican Central Committee and tickets may be obtained by calling any committee member or Republican Headquarters, 373-1861.

Noted anthropologist to lecture at Seaside High School

With the theme "Roots of Prejudice," Monterey Peninsula College will open its Fall, 1965 evening lecture series with a talk by Dr. Ashley Montagu, British-born anthropologist, social biologist and author of such provocative books as "Mans Most Dangerous Myth: The Fallacy of Race" and "The Natural Superiority of Women."

Dr. Montagu will lecture Friday, October 22, 8 p.m. in the Seaside High School auditorium—not in the MPC Armory, as was previously announced.

Free tickets, limited to two per request, are available at the MPC administration building switchboard.

American by choice since 1940 Dr. Montagu was educated at the University of London and earned his doctorate in anthropology at Columbia University in 1937. Among his many positions he has been chairman of the department of anthropology at Rutgers University, visiting lecturer on sociology at Harvard, and Regents Professor at the University of California.

A consultant on anthropology problems to UNESCO, Dr. Montagu has also worked extensively in the field of race problems. He enjoys an international reputation as an anthropologist who is principally interested in bridging the gap between the biological and social sciences, with special emphasis on the understanding and welfare of man.

Comings and goings of people you know...

By GINNIE DREW

Among the many who were sipping champagne and studying the paintings at last week's AFA preview in Carmel were Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. Marion Grey, Mrs. John Senger, Mr. and Mrs. Rod Dewar, Mrs. William Penpraze, Mr. and Mrs. L.W. Klene, Thaddews Killar, Lorraine Hoffman and contributing artists Joe Ataide, Dorothy Bowman, Vern Yaden and Joan Savo. The traditional Champagne Preview gave sponsors and artists an opportunity to meet and talk prior to the formal opening of the exhibition, "Monterey County Painting-1965."

The Monterey Alumni Chapter of Phi Beta Phi sorority will hold a luncheon meeting at the Rancho Road home of Mrs. W.G.B. Hatch on Saturday, October 16. They will meet at 12:30 with each person bringing his own sandwiches. Dessert and coffee will be served by Mrs. Hatch. Valleyite Mrs. Ed Miller, president of the group, invites any Pi Phi alums who are interested to attend the luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Micheal Antoncich recently returned from Lafayette where they visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mickey and Pam, and their grand daughter, Camilla. While in Lafayette they also saw former Valley residents, Bev and Klaus Mueller. Klaus is now a professor in the German Department of UC at Berkeley and they are just getting settled in their new house after last month's move from Sacramento.

CV families invited to Chapel potluck

A fellowship potluck supper will be held at Carmel Valley Community Chapel on Sunday, October 24, at 5:30 p.m. All families are urged to attend as this will be an excellent opportunity for members to meet new people in the church.

Families are asked to provide their own silverware, plates and cups in addition to supplying a main dish and a salad or dessert.

CV Road accident

Members of the First Aid Crew from the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Dept. were called to a two car auto accident October 9 at 8:07 a.m. The accident, which occurred on Esquiline Road near Rosie's Cracker Barrel, involved cars operated by Judith Hensel, Hitchcock Canyon Road, and Mike Marquard, Country Club Drive.

chairman of the Visitors and Convention Bureau of the Monterey Peninsula Chamber of Commerce. He replaces William Sefton who has headed the VCB for the past year.

First nighters at the opening of "The Innocents" included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crispo, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Barnes, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brandt and Toni. Following the performance, the cast, staff and attending Theatre Guild members enjoyed an opening night party at the home of producer Sally Church.

A fabulous horse pack trip took Valleyites Jack Thompson, Mmes. and Mssrs. Phil Cordrey, Fred Nason and Bill Wilson on the Los Padres Forest trails from Cachagua to Big Sur last weekend. One of the most spectacular points was at the fire tower perched on the precipitous ridge at Ventana Double Cone. In an unfortunate accident many feet of the trip were lost when Bill Wilson's film cartridge unwound, ruining views of the narrow path and hundred miles of vistas.

UN birthday party set for Oct. 24

Happy Birthday to the United Nations will take the form of a beer party, to be held at Ring's Restaurant, on October 24. That Sunday is United Nations Day and festivities will begin at 3 p.m.

Admission is free to UN members and invited guests, and proceeds from refreshments and a raffle will benefit a year-round Information Center to be established on the Monterey Peninsula.

Entertainment will be provided by local folk singers and paintings and ceramics for the raffle will be donated by local artists.

WHAT'S DOING?

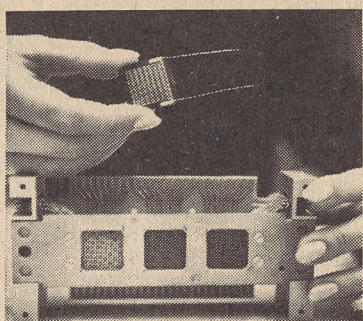

How do you string telephone wire under a customer's house when the space between ground and floor is only 18 inches? It was the customer's pet beagle to the rescue! After tying the wire to the dog's collar, the customer went to the other side of the house as the telephone man put Buster in the small opening. At the sound of "Here, Buster," the beagle, dragging the wire behind him, scooted through to his master—and the job was done!

If you're taking an auto trip this fall, remember to call ahead for reservations. It costs little, takes only a moment... and could save you from sleeping in the car.

Memories are made of this... electronic memories anyway. This brain cell provides "memory" for a new telephone switching system which someday will make it possible for you to set up conference calls yourself, use abbreviated numbers for calls you make often and to have your incoming calls transferred to another number. Improvement of your service is our chief concern. And improvement means change... in equipment and techniques. Every change is aimed at giving you better phone service at reasonable cost.

Back in 1955 in Americus, Georgia, the Bell Solar Battery began its first trial in actual service on a rural telephone line. Ten years later, the Solar Battery is used as a source of power on many of today's space satellites.

No Cause for Alarm

Pacific Telephone was on hand with a message center to assist the conventioners of the 43rd annual California State Fireman's Association. The convention was held September 27th through the 30th and approximately 1100 fireman and guests attended, representing all of California. On the program were: memorial services, business meetings, BBQ picnic, and a ball. Highlighting the convention was a gala two hour parade. Some of the participants in the parade were Mayors, CSFA officials, Military units from the area, Civic Groups, and a multitude of fire departments and varied types of firefighting vehicles.

Needless to say with all the congenial fireman in the area, there was NO CAUSE FOR ALARM

First Baptist Church organ installation nearing completion

THE CONSOLE OF THE FIRST BAPTIST organ will be dedicated soon and has been used for services since Oct. 3.

Installation of the new pipe organ at the First Baptist Church on Carmel Valley Road is to be completed before the end of the month after a trial period of Sunday services.

Four hundred more pipes which will provide a great variety of sounds will be added by Charles Clark of Los Angeles to finish the installation.

Dr. Sal di Mercurio, choir director, will announce plans for a public dedication concert soon, according to the Rev. Ned Holmgren. Robert Webb is organist.

After summer recess the choir is being organized again and Dr. di Mercurio hopes to eventually recruit 30 to 40 voices. A Christmas cantata has already been selected: "Night of Miracles" by John Peterson.

Homes needed for exchange students

The Carmel Chapter of the American Field Service (AFS) is mailing letters this week to families who may be interested in having a child from Europe stay with them for a year under the AFS Exchange program.

According to Mrs. Richard Sipple, president of the local chapter, the students in this program are of high school age, and would arrive next fall in time for the beginning of school. Mrs. Sipple, while a student at Carmel High, took part in the summer exchange program in 1954 and spent time living with a family in Germany.

Stipulations for anyone who like to have the exchange student become a member of his family are that the child be enrolled in the local high school, that there be other children in the family and that the parents are ready to act as mother and father to the youngster. He, on the other hand, has to appear occasionally at rallies and meetings and speak on his impressions and feelings while living in the United States.

Letters soliciting funds for the AFS program were mailed to local civic organizations last week. $750 is needed by the chapter in order to sponsor one child for next year.

Anyone who is interested in providing a home or donating to the program may call Mrs. Sipple (624-1788) for further information.

cluding "Samba de Orpheus," and "Casaba".

For his current concert tour, Guaraldi and his men work closely with Bola, a musician who was in the vanguard of the Bossa Nova movement and who helped spread the beat to North America.

With his own trio, Guaraldi has played engagements at San Francisco night clubs, such as the Hungry i, Blackhawk, and Sugar Hill.

INSTALLER CHARLES CLARK checks the voices of the pipes with the acoustics of the church sanctuary. Mr. Clark came from Los Angeles to supervise the job.

Jazz concert scheduled at Hartnell

"The Days of Wine and Roses," will soon be here when Vince Guaraldi and Bola Sete come to Salinas Friday, October 22, for a concert sponsored by the Hartnell College Jazz Club.

Jazz pianist Guaraldi and his Trio best known for their hit recording "Cast Your Fate to the Wind," will team up with the Brazilian guitarist for a performance at the College Men's Gymnasium, beginning at 9:30 p.m.

The public is invited to the benefit show where admission has been set at $1 for students and $2 for regular admission.

Guaraldi, Mill Valley resident and a favorite of the San Francisco jazz devotees, has brought a Latin beat to many of his own compositions, in-

Stories of Norway told in 'The Hill House'

By MARJORIE M. IBSEN
Carmel Valley Librarian

THE HILL HOUSE by Ragnhild Chevalier Williams, illustrated by Kurt Werth. 143 pages. David McKay Company, Inc. New York, $3.50.

The Hill House (Bakkehuset) is a series of short, authentic tales of the childhood of the author and her mother in her grandmother's home near Berare those of winter: the courage and resourcefulness of little Ola, pursued by hungry wolves as he skated on the frozen river with a washtub on his sled; the potato fight in the market place; and the rainy day game in the attic that almost ended in tragedy.

They introduce us to fishermen, sailors, peasants in their colorful costumes, and to the many of the notables of Norway of a generation ago - composers, musicians, writers, and explorers.

The pre-Christmas preparations with Nilla, the cook, baking holiday breads and pastries in her warm, steamy, sugar and spice filled kitchen, is quite a contrast to the strong odors emanating from the hold of the storm tossed fishing boat near the Lofoten Island, on which two little girls had one of their most exciting adventures.

The author's ability to describe the long, dark, cold winters and the warm sun lit days of summer with the lingering twilights makes them very real. One gets the feeling of the mountain ranges and fertile valleys, the light and dark of the fjords.

Although the book is written primarily for children, adults will find it equally enchanting.

As a part of Children's Book Week, October 31 - November 6, the author, Ragnhild Williams, will be speaking on T.V., Channel 2 (KTUV) at 10 o'clock on the morning of November 2, commenting on some of the new books for children.

Carmel Valley wins honors in '65-66 Community Chest drive

Carmel Valley residential chairman Mrs. Mark Hattan received the Magyar Mug at a Tuesday report meeting of the 1965-66 fund drive for the Monterey Peninsula Community Chest. Mrs. Hattan, who accepted the silver trophy emblematic of the best percentage accepted the silver trophy emblem of a goal attained to date by a residential chairman, did so in behalf of vice chairmen, Mmes. John Woods, Rex Pryer, and Robert Harris and the many volunteers making a house to house canvass of Carmel Valley. To date the Valley volunteers have turned in $6,002 against a quota of $13,600. The Peninsula has reached one third of its $195,000 quota.

Workers attending the meeting at the Mark Thomas Inn were reminded once again that the Salvation Army has been added this year as an agency and will begin receiving funds from the chest in January of 1966. Also a request for additional funds was received from the USO.

Carmel Valley has retained ownership of the Magyar Mug for the past two years and it is hoped it will remain in the Valley when the current drive is completed Nov. 2.

There's a good answer!

No matter what the problem — or how vexing the situation — there's always a good answer. And it's basically spiritual. Often it depends on how we answer the question "Who Is Your Maker?" SPCA fashion show to benefit Thrift Shop

Fashions for Ladies and Fashions for Dogs will be featured at the S.P.C.A. Champagne Fashion Show to be held Thursday, October 21, at the Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club. Pets will be dressed by the Carmel Pet Show and Ladies fashions will be provided by Kramer's of Carmel.

Miss Marion Kingsland is the general chairman of the event which will benefit the newly organized S.P.C.A. Thrift Shop in Carmel and go toward purchase of a new pet ambulance.

Dorrie Steinmann, who was with KXTV in Sacramento for a number of years, will be present for commentary, as models and their pets show off the fall finery. Among those who will participate in the show is Mrs. Florence Venn of Hacienda Carmel who will be accompanied by her miniature poodle, Miss Moppett.

Comic film slated in MPC series

"The Big Deal on Madonna Street," a film spoof of crime described as "funnier than anything bottled in Bond," will be screened at Monterey Peninsula College, Friday, October 22.

Two showings are scheduled in the MPC Music Hall: at 7 and 9 p.m. Free tickets - limited to two per request - will be available in the college administration building from October 18. Mail requests will be honored when accompanied by stamped, self-addressed envelope.

The second offering in the MPC's fall film series, "Big Deal" was directed by Mario Monicelli in Italy in 1960. Starring Marcello Mastroianni, Claudia Cardinale, Vittorio Gassman and Toto, it tells the story of a safe heist by a group of butterfingers who can't synchronize their watches because nobody owns a watch.

Time called the film "fracturingly funny," and the New York Herald Tribune described it as "one of the most irresistible Italian comedies in years."

UNICEF Trick or Treat on Oct. 29

Friday, October 29, has been designated as "Trick or Treat for UNICEF" night in Carmel Valley. The actual collections are scheduled to take place between 4 and 6 p.m. After going home for dinner children who took part in the drive will bring their boxes to the Old White Oaks Barn behind the Post Office where they will be treated to an old fashioned Halloween party from 7 to 9 p.m.

Parental permission slips will be handed out this weekend at the local churches and several other locations in town. Next week, a booth will be set up in front of the Carmel Valley library where children may turn in the permission slips and receive their collection cartons. Those hours will be from 3 to 5 p.m. on Thursday and Friday, October 28 and 29.

Children are asked to travel in pairs while going door to door and younger ones are requested to have a teenager or adult accompany them.

Flag football on Saturdays at Middle School

The seventh and eighth grade flag football team of Middle School has been playing Saturday games with other junior high schools in Monterey and Marina and with York School. There is one team from each grade at Middle School while some of the larger schools have two in each class.

Over the last two weekends the Middle School eighth grade team scored two victories, beating Portola, 19-11, and Fremont Junior High, 24-19.

The seventh grade team split their two games with Fremont, winning the first, 41-14, and losing the second 20-13.

The group is interested in the study not only of non-violence in nations looking toward world

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Another controversy is brewing in Carmel Valley according to informed sources in the Village. The School for the Study of Non-Violence, founded by folk singer Joan Baez, has applied for a use permit to operate as a resident school on property one and a half miles east of the Village. We feel that the training, background and aims of the school's organizers are not unimpressive and should be presented.)

peace, but also in the conduct of daily living...the relationship of people with each other, according to a spokesman for the group Seminars for college students, teachers, ministers and anyone else who is interested in the goal of promotion of world peace may join the seminars. The seminars include study of the lives and philosophies of great men and peace in world history.

Pool benefits from Kiwanis donation

WE PERSUADED KIWANIS PRESIDENT, Bill Mallek (left) to try out the new bath house at the Community Pool to see how things were coming along before he released the Kiwanis contribution for $100 to George Clifford. George, being both Kiwanis treasurer and treasurer of the Community Center Board just put the check in the opposite pocket from the one he'd carried it in. Bill got caught in the tryout of the new building by curious youngsters, Alan Drew and Alex Bleven, who were also checking the progress of the bath house.

The Sheriff's Blotter

By REX PRYER

Three reports were turned into the Sheriff's office over the weekend.

A resident of Ridgeway, off Country Club Drive, reported the loss of three dogs; one female doberman, one female beagle and a six month old shepherd type puppy.

Two deputies chased, but lost, a 1959 red Jaguar at speeds of more than 100 mile an hour from Leavell's Restaurant to the Village.

Two injured deer were reported on the highway. When deputies arrived one was already gone and the other destroyed since it was badly hurt. OCT. 15 - The night watchman at Carmel Valley Manor reported a suspicious car and gave description during phone call. Coming to answer the call, the deputy intercepted the vehicle and stopped it. 17 year old driver stated that he had been at the Manor to pick up friends, formerly employed in the kitchen. The driver was warned that he was on private property and should stay off.

OCT. 15 - Clyde W. Scott of Los Arboles Road, upon arrival from work at 10 p.m. discovered his wife Lyida G. Scott, 53 years old, dead. Coroner's reported that she had died from apparent natural causes at about 7 p.m.

OCT. 11 - A resident of Los Laureles Grade Road reported that his wife was having trouble with the entranced husband of their daughter. He had broken into the house by cutting a screen door and taken personal property belonging to him. Then he proceeded to cut the tires on a pickup truck which his wife was driving. His intention to do the same to the parents car was stopped by a threat of force. Deputy instructed parents to file complaint with the District Attorney's office if they wished to continue the action.

Audubon Lecture Series opens

The Audubon Wildlife Film and Lecture Series will open the 1965-66 season with a film by C.P. Lyons entitled "Nature's Plans and Puzzles."

The movie, filmed against the magnificent backdrop of British Columbia's forests, deserts and mountains will be presented at Pacific Grove Junior High School Auditorium on Tuesday, October 26, at 8 p.m.

Mr. Lyons was born and raised in Canada and spent his boyhood in British Columbia. He has been associated with the Parks Division of the Forestry Service and was an officer in The Department of Recreation and Conservation in British Columbia for 20 years. He has spent the summer months filming a series of television programs.

The relationship of events in the earth's history which have affected birds, animals and plants in their environment and their results are depicted in this colorful and unusual film.

Single admission is $1 and season tickets for the five films are $4. A student season ticket is $2 with individual admissions at 50¢.

Tickets are obtainable at the Pacific Grove Museum of Natural History (372-4212).

Parade kicks off Halloween Carnival

Spooks, witches, dancers, gypsies and men from outer space will gather for the Halloween Costume Parade at 5 p.m. on Saturday, October 30, at Tularcitos Upper Level Playground! This will mark the beginning of the annual Halloween Carnival sponsored by the Parents Club.

All children are urged to BE THERE ON TIME!

First second and third prizes will be awarded in each of four categories: funniest; spookiest, prettiest and most imaginative. After the kids are sorted out according to their costume types, the parade will march through the multipurpose room and up across the stage for judging.

This year in addition to the booths featuring fortune tellers, games of chance, food and drinks, there will be two spook houses, one for the very brave and another for the young or faint in heart.

Last year's Halloween Carnival was a tremendous success and this one promises to be even greater...Parents and children alike are invited to join in the fun.
